Location

Davids Way sits within a well-established residential pocket of the charming market town of Haddington. The neighbourhood offers a calm and welcoming environment, while still being close to the town's wide selection of everyday amenities. Residents enjoy access to supermarkets, independent shops, cafes, restaurants and leisure facilities, as well as reputable primary and secondary schools.

The surrounding area provides plenty of opportunities for outdoor recreation, with riverside paths, parks and open countryside all within easy reach. Transport connections are convenient, with regular bus services running to Edinburgh and nearby towns, and quick access to the A1 for those travelling by car.
